The Camarillo Art Center is a non-profit, all volunteer organization which promotes interest in a broad range of visual art forms. An art gallery is maintained for local artists and art students to present their work to the public. The CAC develops various programs, sponsors classes, and houses an art library to foster art education as a means towards its goals of creating awareness and appreciation of the arts in Camarillo.

Membership Privileges

- Free admission to all art demonstrations
- Free use of the building for your own individual show
- Participation in several judged and open art shows each year
- Opportunity to teach or participate in classes and workshops
- Support the arts in our community
- Share art interests with other artists in a group
- Receive a monthly newsletter about upcoming events
- Display your own artwork for an afternoon while gallery hosting
- Discount for your children Art Smart Classes
- Uninstructed art sessions at the Center on Thursdays, 9 – 12

Location

The Camarillo Art Center is located at the corner of Eston Street and Ponderosa Drive, one block east of Boys and Girls Club.
